

The interested customer contacts me by mail, phone or in written form and we arrange a consultation date (liable for costs: EUR 10,-) where the customer informs me about his/her expectations and wishes.

I analyze the problem zone and discuss the results which are expected unhurriedly and in a convenient atmosphere.

After having talked about the therapy price, the customer gets a price list and a list of therapy suggestions. The customer has to pay after every therapy session.
